INCLUSIVE EDUCATION INITIATIVE

Leveraging Lessons from the COVID-19 Crisis for Learners with Disabilities

INCLUSIVE REMOTE LEARNING

INCLUSIVE REMOTE LEARNING

means that every child, whether they have a disability or not, is able to access & participate in learning that takes place away from their classroom.

60% of persons with disabilities don't think that learners with disabilities have ACCESSIBLE EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS while schools are closed.*

Teachers: 49%
Parents/caregivers: 32%

*Concerns about remote learning resources and modalities, by type of respondent

Barriers to Remote Learning (PARENTS)*

- Lack of internet access/data: 1 IN 4
- Lack of power and electricity: 1 IN 10
- Lack of availability of devices: 23%

*proportion of parents reporting power/electricity, internet availability/data, and availability of devices as barriers

60%

58%

56%

Percentage of stakeholders reporting that learners will fall behind in learning due to inaccessible distance learning modalities.

● Parents/Caregivers ● Persons with disabilities ● Teachers

*Concerns about remote learning resources and modalities, by type of respondent

“ How are [learners with disabilities] coping?
Has anyone taken the time to hear their VOICE? ”

— parent, Latin America and the Caribbean

36% of teachers feel they DO NOT have the supports they need to continue helping their students with disabilities learn compared to their students without disabilities*

INCLUSIVE TEACHING

Only 27% of teachers feel like they have the supports they need

*Do teachers feel like they have the supports they need to continue helping their students with disabilities learn compared to their students without disabilities?

32% OF TEACHERS in MAINSTREAM SCHOOLS felt they have the support they need*.

While ONLY 23-28% of teachers FELT SUPPORTED at SPECIAL SCHOOLS*.

*Proportion of teachers who feel supported to help their students, by type of school. Teachers at special schools that have students with a range of disabilities felt less supported than those that focused on providing for one particular disability.

“ Establish a good relationship with parents and involve them in making decisions such as choosing the right time to train their children. ”

– teacher, Middle East & North Africa

AS COUNTRIES RESPOND TO THE NEEDS OF TEACHERS THEY SHOULD:

- 1) support their resilience and ensure salaries continue
- 2) provide adequate training on teaching with technological interfaces
- 3) ensure they are equipped with proper technology needed to continue teaching their students remotely

RATING FROM 1 TO 5

Given the current circumstances, how would you rate the SOCIAL RESPONSE for children with disabilities from ONE to FIVE***?

*Ratings of the social response for parents/caregivers, teachers, and persons with disabilities

INCLUSIVE SOCIAL PROTECTION

AS COUNTRIES RESPOND TO COVID-19 it is imperative for their social protection measures be inclusive of persons with disabilities & their families.

MANY LEARNERS WITH DISABILITIES are a part of poorer families who often have to reduce their workloads to provide care & support to their child & also incur additional disability-related costs.

SOCIAL PROTECTION MECHANISMS

can mitigate further risks of marginalization & ensure children with disabilities are not left behind, abandoned, or neglected.

“ Social learning experiences are often as critical as academics & they have been extremely limited. ”

— teacher. North America

FAMILY & COMMUNITY SUPPORT

41% of parents and caregivers of children with disabilities said they DID NOT have access to the FINANCIAL SUPPORTS they need during COVID-19

39% answered YES 17% answered SOMEWHAT

*Do parents/caregivers have ACCESS TO FINANCIAL SUPPORT?

It is critical to SUPPORT families with rehabilitation services and guidance on assistive devices and technology. COMMUNITY-BASED REHABILITATION workers are well-placed to work with families on supporting their children with disabilities.

It is critical to include the KNOWLEDGE & support of ORGANIZATIONS OF PERSONS with DISABILITIES in the communities.

AS THE PANDEMIC

has sent many children home, parents' & caregivers' roles have shifted and they have dual roles as the parent but also as the teacher making sure their child(ren) stay on task, access learning platforms, & facilitate the connection to their teacher.

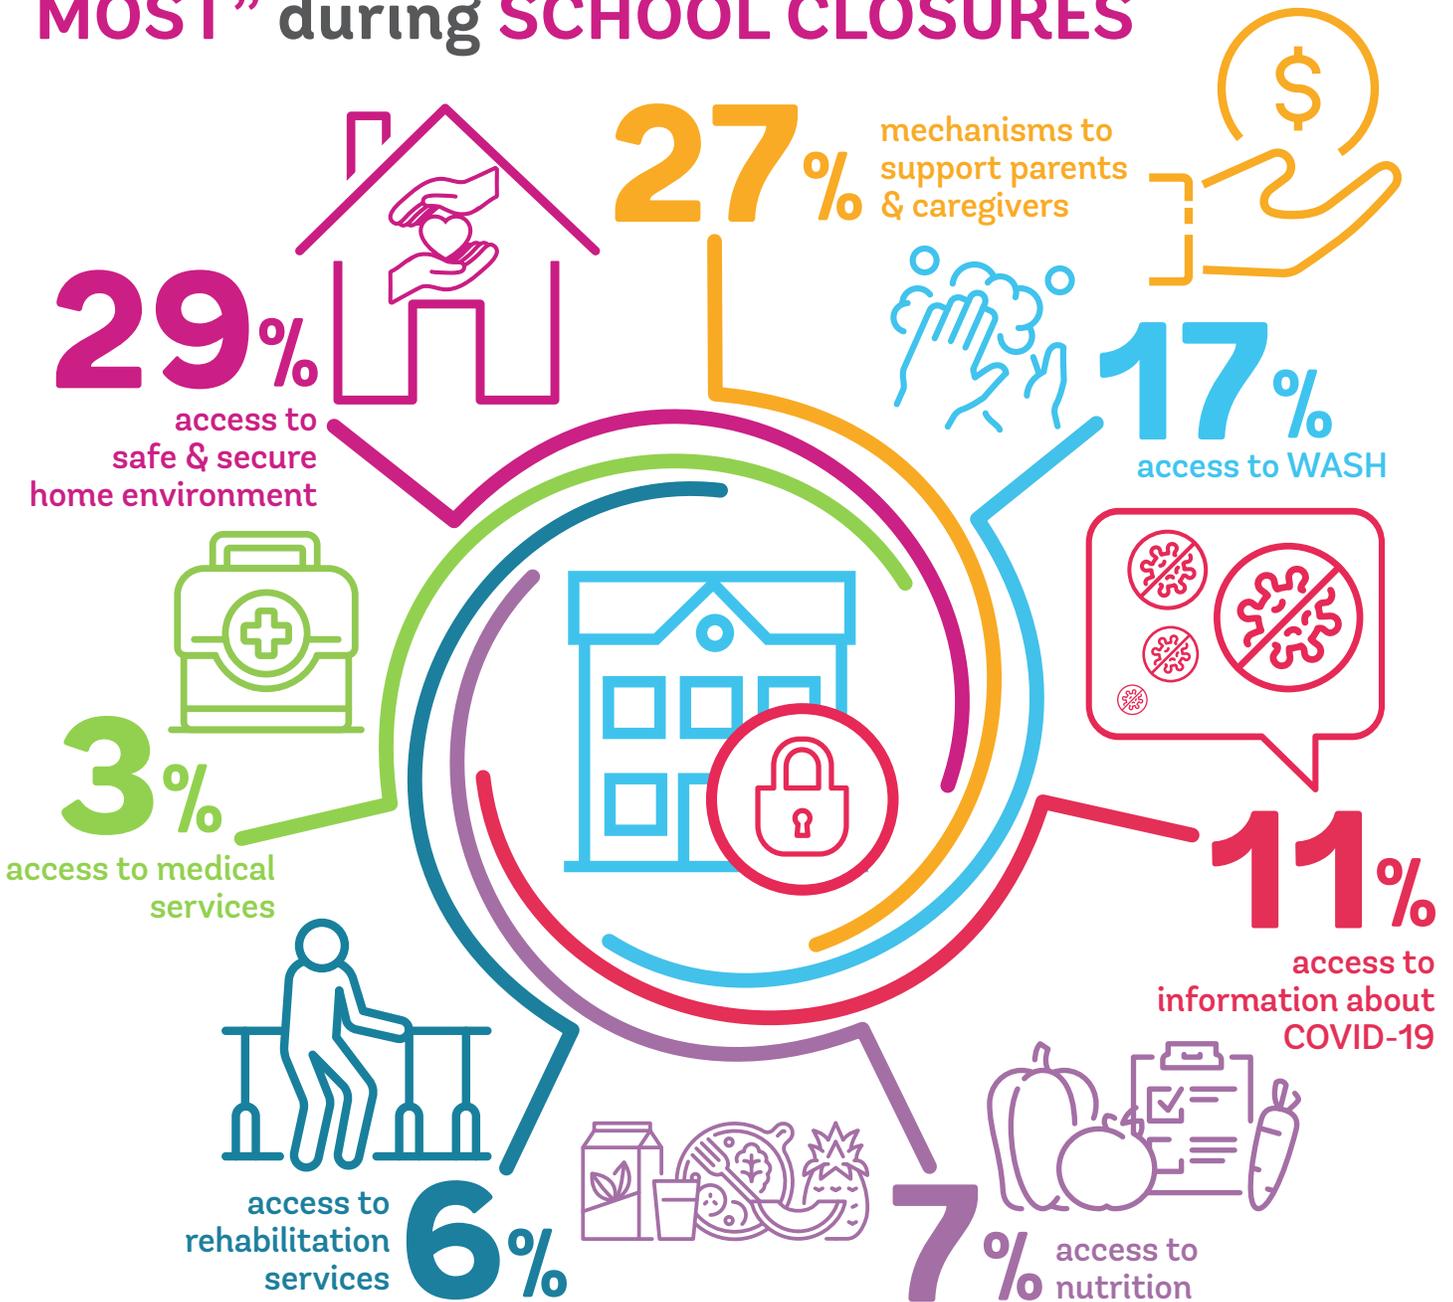

“Contact from school & positive comments from the teacher [are important] to my child to support what he's achieved”

– parent,
Europe and Central Asia

INCLUSIVE

NUTRITION, WASH, AND SAFETY

WHAT learners with disabilities need “MOST” during SCHOOL CLOSURES

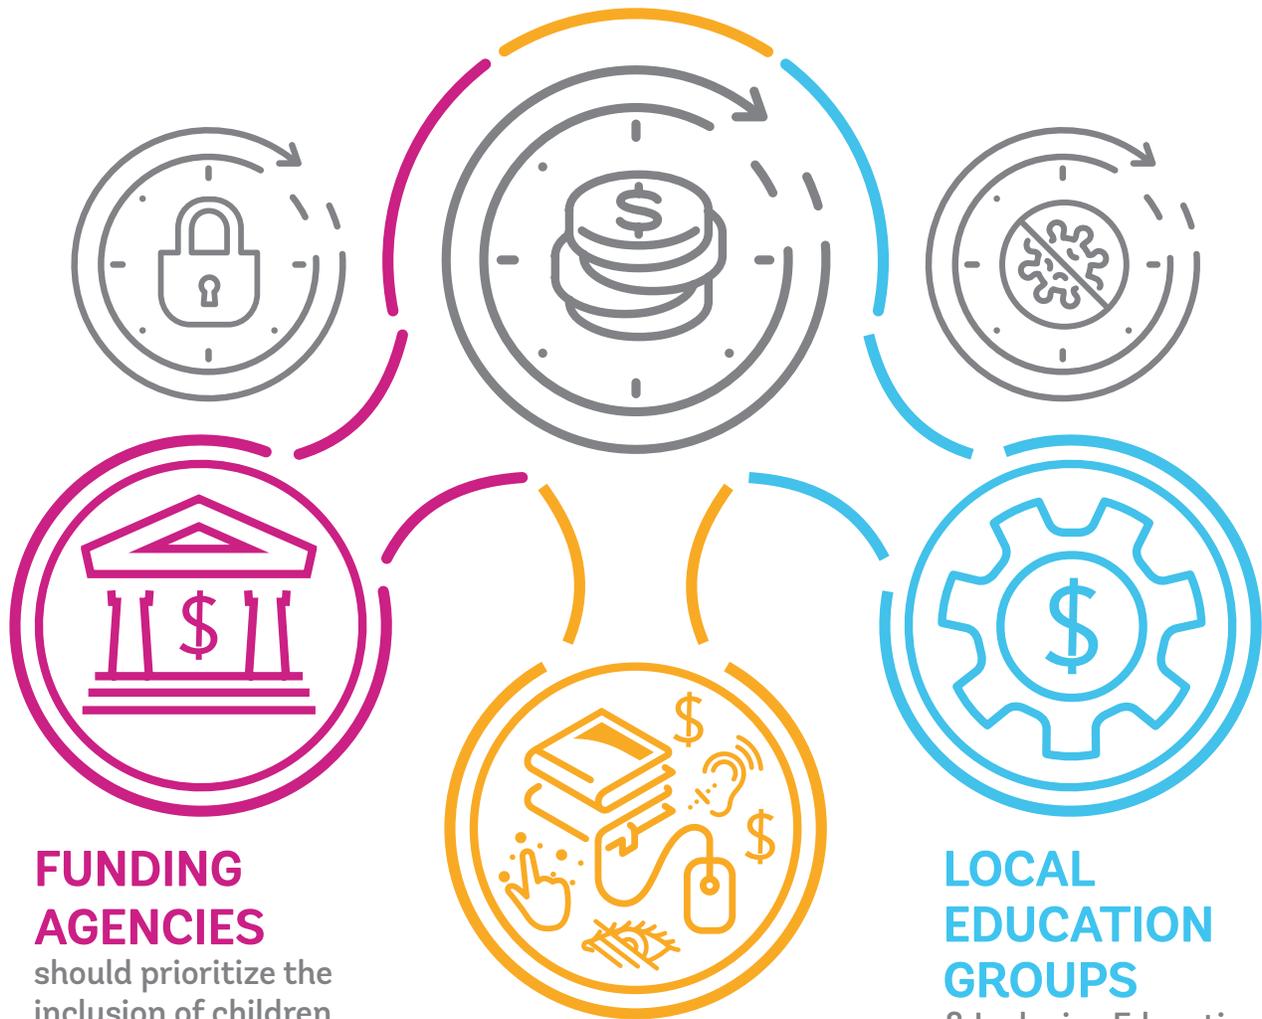

School closures do not just have a direct impact on the loss of learning for children, but also affect their access to nutritious meals, access to proper water, sanitation & hygiene, as well as protection from violence.

*Teachers report what learners with disabilities need most during school closures.

INCLUSIVE FINANCING

ADDITIONAL FINANCING FOR EDUCATION

needs to prioritize learners with disabilities & use the twin-track approach.

FUNDING AGENCIES

should prioritize the inclusion of children with disabilities in their financing efforts as well as allocate targeted financing to children with disabilities to ensure that all children are accessing quality, inclusive education.

PROMOTING DISABILITY- INCLUSIVE EDUCATION FINANCING

during this pandemic, along with collecting disability disaggregated data, can shape long-term, inclusive education models moving forward.

LOCAL EDUCATION GROUPS

& Inclusive Education Working Groups should be aware of application processes. Organizations of persons with disabilities, community-based rehabilitation networks, & other disability and development organizations should be consulted.
